11th JUNE 2016

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

Psalter Week 3

"Her many sins have been forgiven, or she would not have shown such great love."

The "theme" of the First Reading, Psalm and Gospel today is "forgiveness of sins". We hear the touching Gospel story, of the "woman with a bad name in the town" coming to anoint Jesus's feet. Living inspired by the love of Jesus is the key to our discipleship - his crucifixion is the sign of his love, which is in itself the forgiveness of sins.

PSALM

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven whose sin is remitted. O happy the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. But now I have acknowledged my sins: my guilt I did not hide. I said: "I will confess my offence to the Lord." And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin. You are my hiding place, O Lord; you save me from distress. You surround me with cries of deliverance. Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, exult, you just! O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart.

First Reading: 2 Samuel 12: 7-10, 13

Second Reading: Gal 2:16, 19-21

Gospel Reading: Luke 7: 36-8:3

PRAYER FOR THE QUEEN

V. O Lord, save Elizabeth, our Queen
R. And hear us on the day we call upon you.
V. O Lord, hear my prayer.
R. And let my cry come before you.
V. The Lord be with you
R. And with your spirit
Almighty God, we pray,
That your servant Elizabeth, our Queen,
who, by your providence has received the governance of this realm, may continue to grow in every virtue, that, imbued with your heavenly grace, she may be preserved from all that is harmful and evil and, being blessed with your favour, may, with her consort and the royal family, come at last into your presence, through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
