The Solemnity of All Saints

"Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven!"

"A huge number, impossible to count" – that is the picture this Solemnity creates. In every age there have been men and women who have followed the Lord faithfully, and who now rejoice in the Liturgy of Heaven, as they stand before the throne of the Lamb. These are the "anonymous" saints, whose names we don't remember - but even though their names are not on our lips, their memory, inspiration, example and prayers are set before us today, so that we too can be encouraged in our own "journey of perfection". What does it take to be a saint? Surely the Gospel that is appointed for today (the Beatitudes) shows us that it is in the small things that we triumph: gentleness, mercy, making peace, faithful mourning, purity of heart, poverty in spirit - these are not grand, public ways to sanctity. They are domestic, and homely, to be practised and perfected with those closest to us. We sometimes exalt the "named" saints to the degree that we can feel they are distant from us. Today's feast, as well as celebrating the memory of the many whose name we do not know, also prompts us to see holiness as within our grasp.

Belmont Abbey
Prayer and Reflection for All Souls
- Monday 2nd November - led by Dom Brendan Thomas & Abbot Paul Stonham

In a year marked by loss, grieving and sorrow, some have lost loved ones to the virus and many others have been deprived of saying their proper 'goodbyes' to friends and family that have died at this time, funeral services being so restricted. In such circumstances All Souls Day and the month of November take on a special significance this year, for us to pray and to remember.

Join us online for prayer and short reflections on grief and loss, finding comfort in sorrow, and the hope that animates our faith.
